

Bus Stories

A trilogy of independent one acts

by
Mark Lambeck

Bus Stories has one common element – each play takes place in a bus station or on a bus itself. The three plays look at the kinds of everyday anxieties that affect the human condition from the dynamics of blended families to the breakdown of communication in relationships.

Includes the one-acts Waiting for the 2:45 (4 women), The Beat Goes On (2 women) and Unsuspecting Turnips (3 women/1 man).
