

Bet A Million

A Comedy in Three Acts

by Larry Sullivan

This side-splitting comedy rides the wave of the glory days of Wall Street, when every investment was poised to strike gold and every investor was part of the rush! It is a fast-paced farce with lots of slamming doors, mistaken identities, and romantic complications. Meet Amanda and Charlie Thompson, a sophisticated New York couple, their college-aged daughter, and her real-life "Prince Charming". Completing the ensemble is Tony, the Wall Street Cassanova, and Lou, the idiosyncratic president of Wade & Company. The show-stopping celebratory dinner party will have you howling. You'll truly enjoy this inventive and humorous foray into the world of stock market mayhem where a slightly under-handed (yet totally legal) deal wows the wizards of Wall Street.
