

Thomas W. Sypek's

Family

The Wallace Family lives in a 3-story house in South Boston, Massachusetts. It is the 1950s. Tom Wallace, a man who believes life should be lived by a set of rules, works two jobs. His son, Richie has just dropped out of school. His younger daughter Carol has left school and is working. Uncle Willy, an old friend of the family, has just lost his job. Tom takes him in. Tom's wife Anna is a small fragile woman haunted by ghosts of the past. On the surface everything seems normal, but underneath things are starting to surface. Secret after secret is revealed.
