

Synchronicity

a play for one actress
By Marie Scampini

Asis, a writer/artist/performance artist believes there are no coincidences, that people meet each other for a reason - especially her latest love and lust of her life, Michael, a prominent attorney. Asis meets Michael as she is being illegally evicted from her rent-controlled apartment, and Michael has to deal with the sudden death of his father. Synchronicity explores how they significantly impact each other's lives for the better, even if their love relationship is never meant to be forever.
